DEAD OR ALIVE 6 Last Round Championship Prize Money Guidelines

Nov 24, 2026

These guidelines refer to requirements and conditions concerning the monetary prizes awarded as a part of DEAD OR ALIVE　6　Championship (hereinafter “DOA6LR CS”).

1. Prize Money Acquisition Conditions To receive prize money entrants of the DOA6LR CS must meet conditions (1)-(5) and consent to conditions (6), (7) and (8) listed below.

(1) Entrants must meet the eligibility requirements described in the DOA6LR CS Terms and Conditions.
(2) Entrants must achieve a top rank in one or more of the competitions part of DOA6LR CS in order to become a recipient (hereinafter referred to as the “Recipients“) of a monetary award.
(3) Recipients must own a bank account that can be used for the deposit of the prize money.
(4) Recipients must own a working e-mail address that can be used for contact purposes with regards to the award received.
(5) The account holder name of the bank account provided must match with the Recipient’s legal name.
(6) In cases where an agreement is reached with KOEI TECMO that the prize money is to be deposited in a currency other than US dollars ($), the Recipients must accept that the amount deposited will be determined in accordance with the TTB exchange rate to be announced by Koei Tecmo’s remittance bank on the day of the remittance.

(7) Recipients must accept the burden of any bank fee (foreign currency exchange) that may occur in relation to the money awarded.

(8) Recipients must accept all responsibility of researching and complying with laws, including tax laws, regulations, and procedures that may apply with regards to the prize money awarded in their country and region of residence.

2. Prize Money Acquisition Procedure (on day of the competition) The Recipients will be contacted by the official DOA6LR CS administration staff (hereinafter referred to as the “Administration Staff”) following the confirmation of the results of each competition. The Recipients must make sure to contact the Administration Staff following the official announcement. At this point, the Administration Staff will confirm the identities of Recipients and collect the information necessary to transfer the prize money to the Recipient.

3. Prize Money Acquisition Procedure (post-competition) All contact with the Recipients following the competition will be conducted via e-mail. Under the condition that all necessary procedures were completed and the Recipient has submitted all required information, the prize money will be transferred to the Recipient's account within 60 days following the competition.